January 2013

Welcome back

A very happy new year to everyone – hope you had a great break and are ready to dust off those instruments for another year!

Subscriptions

A new term means your subscriptions are due (unless you paid for a year up front). The current rate is £20 per term; please bring your payment as soon as possible (we know who you are!).

Remember, we're always on the look out for new talent and have a particular need for some additional brass and string player so if you have any musical friends please do encourage them to join too.

Keeping track with us online

If you ever need to find the latest information on the orchestra don't forget to visit our website: www.nsyo.org.uk, Twitter feed (@nsyo) and Facebook page.
