NSYO Update: November 2015

We hope you had a good half term break. Here are a few quick updates...

Streetly Christmas Tree Festival

As some of you will recall, we have taken part in the Streetly Christmas Tree festival for the last couple of years and they are keen to welcome us back for another year. This will be an informal performance of some of our festive favourites while people browse a variety of Christmas trees decorated by local organisations including ourselves. This performance will take place on 1pm on Sunday 6th December at All Saints Parish Church, Foley Road East. You need to arrive at 12.30 and should be finished by 2pm.

Keeping in touch

We try to keep you up to date with all the latest information about events and rehearsals online: on our website at www.nsyo.org.uk, via twitter @nsyo or via our Facebook page. There is also a Friends of NSYO website currently under construction with more details to follow soon.

If your contact details have changed please let us know via the contact details form on the members area of the website.

It is very rare that we need to cancel a rehearsal, but at this time of year bad weather can occasionally mean we need to do so at relatively short notice. We'll do our best to keep you informed, but if you're not sure you can always drop us an email mail@nsyo.org.uk.

Christmas Concert

Our Christmas concert will take place on Saturday 12th December at Sutton Coldfield United Reformed Church. As usual there will be an afternoon rehearsal from 2-6pm with the performance commencing at 7.30pm. It might still feel a long way off but attendance is important so please ensure it is marked on your calendar and start spreading the word. You should have let us know by now if for any reason you are unable to make it.
